Been taking drugs till I stop the necessity of defeating all the demons

Defeating my demons with the drugs thst I've been scheming with taking all the same drugs I'm drug dealing with the homies every season even if we don't need money 💯 doing it for the funny wiggas that need us delivering cause they may be scared of all the Hoodie wearing men camping on they block from 6pm to 10am

Living in hell I swore I'd get myself out of whenever I settle for less than the hand I'm dealt with needed practice can't even play a game of poker but I bet u I could master I'm the guru of my Financials Seeing fractals calculating calculus without equational analysis I'm crafting new answers shit I might be master I'm asking for advice to master my own class and shit I can't stop learning I need to create some new phas for humanity to master it like I have the power to confidently craft on earth

I'm madder than the Alice mad hatter can I fan a fan without another fan of my raps I'm written live forever after in My master of me which is my own reflection in the mirror graphing a reflection of the light composition of the decisions I made to make the man I am today, cant say much, im just disasterally rich to actually give a Fuck! Actually, which?
